GOVERNMENT'S EMERGENCY MOTION FOR A STATUS CONFERENCE

The United States, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Texas, hereby requests that this Court set this matter for an immediate status conference. On this date, the counsel for the Defendant made the Government aware of substantial concerns that the trial date may be at risk. The Government believes that, in order to preserve the previously established trial date, the Court may need to take action quickly to address those concerns. The Government requests a status conference.
